Superintendent's Highlights

Recently released school district test scores are complimentary to students and demonstrate high instructional quality. The high school "received high marks" in a ten-year evaluation report recently released. In the fall of 1997, substantial work on the development of a K-12 integrated curriculum is planned.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

1996-97 Goals

A completely new school board policy book will be developed by the school board, district employees, and community members

Progress

The district purchased a proposed policy book from attorney Elaine Eberharter-Maki. Refinements are being made in community policy development meetings. Completion of the policy book will be accomplished by August, 1997.

A K-12 spelling and vocabulary curriculum has been adopted

A curriculum has been adopted and teacher training and program implementation will take place in August, 1997.
